6. The financial statements were prepared based on the assumption that the Foundation will continue to operate as a going concern in the foreseeable future. The Management Board believes that there were no circumstances indicating that the Foundation may not be a going concern.
7. The financial statements were prepared in accordance with the Accounting Act.

Description of adopted accounting principles, including principles of measuring assets and liabilities (together with depreciation), determining the financial result and method of preparing the financial statements in the extent left by the Accounting Act at the Foundation's discretion.

Intangible assets

Intangible assets are recognized if it is probable that the future economic benefits that are directly attributable to the asset will flow to the Foundation. Initially, intangible assets are recorded at acquisition cost or cost of production. The initial value of intangible assets is adjusted by depreciation and impairment write-downs. Intangible assets are depreciated using the straight-line method over their estimated useful lives.

An assessment is made at each balance sheet date to determine whether the carrying amounts of assets exceed the amounts of estimated future economic benefits. If there is any evidence indicating that this is actually the case, the carrying amounts of such assets are written down to their net realisable values. The resulting impairment losses are recognized under other operating expenses.

Tangible fixed assets

Tangible fixed assets are stated at acquisition cost, cost of production or re-valued amount, less accumulated depreciation and impairment losses.

Costs incurred on an asset already in use, such as repairs, maintenance or operating fees, are expensed in the reporting period in which they were incurred. If however, it is possible to demonstrate that such costs increase the expected future economic benefits to be derived from a given asset beyond the originally expected benefits, they are capitalized to the initial cost of the asset.

Tangible fixed assets, except for land, are depreciated using the straight-line method over their estimated useful lives, or over the shorter of their useful life and the term of the right to use the assets.

An assessment is made at each balance sheet date to determine whether the carrying amounts of assets exceed the amounts of estimated future economic benefits. If there is any evidence indicating that this is actually the case, the carrying amounts of the assets are written down to their net realisable values. The resulting impairment losses are recognized under other operating expenses.

The following depreciation rates and methods were applied to particular groups of assets:

Tangible fixed assets	Depreciation method	Depreciation rate
Technical equipment and machinery	Straight-line method	14% - 30%
Vehicles	Straight-line method	20%

Financial assets

Financial assets are initially measured at acquisition cost, which is the fair value the amount paid.

After initial recognition, financial assets classified as held to maturity are valued at the adjusted purchase price calculated using the effective interest rate. Profits and losses that arise from revaluation are recognized under financial profits or losses in the reporting period in which the revaluation took place.

Financial assets classified as available for sale are valued at the fair value. Interest from these assets accrued based on the effective interest rates are recorded as financial income. Profits or losses recorded in the revaluation reserve constitute the difference between the fair value of assets as of the revaluation date, and value of those assets at adjusted purchase price.

Receivables and liabilities

Receivables

As of the balance sheet date receivables were valued at the amount to be paid in accordance with the prudence principle.

Receivables are valued net of any impairment write-downs, taking into account the probability of settlement. Write-downs of receivables are charged to operating costs or to financial costs – depending on the nature of the receivables.

Liabilities

A liability is a commitment to settle an obligation of a reliably estimated value, arising from previous events, resulting in use of existing or future assets of the Foundation.

Liabilities are measured at their face value as at the date of the transaction giving rise to the liability. As of the balance sheet date liabilities are valued at the amount to be paid.

Foreign currency transactions

Business transactions denominated in foreign currencies are recognized on the date of their occurrence at the following exchange rates:

- in the case of foreign currency sales or purchases and the settlement of foreign currency denominated receivables or payables – the rate actually applied on the transaction;
- in other cases – the average National Bank of Poland (NBP) rate announced for a given currency on the day preceding the transaction date.

Assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies as of the balance sheet date are translated at that date using the average exchange rate determined by the NBP for a particular currency as of that day (exchange rates as of the end of the financial years 2018 and 2019 are presented below).

Currency	31.12.2019	31.12.2018
EUR	4.2585	4.3000
USD	3.7977	3.7597

Auschwitz-Birkenau Foundation

Exchange gains or losses arising on a settlement date, being the result of a difference between the exchange rate applied to a payment and the exchange rate applied on the date when the asset or liability was recognised are allocated to financial income or financial expenses respectively.

The surplus of exchange losses over gains is recognized in financial expenses; the surplus of exchange gains over losses is recognized in financial income.

Cash and cash equivalents

Cash is valued at its nominal value. Cash denominated in foreign currency is valued at its face value converted into Polish zloty. As of the balance sheet date cash is valued at the average exchange rate for a particular currency announced by the NBP at that day.

Prepayments

Prepayments include expenses borne by the Foundation relating to future accounting periods. The costs are recognized over time and method of their settlement depends on the nature of the costs. Prepaid expenses are disclosed at the nominal value.

Statutory fund

Income of the Foundation from donations shall, as a general rule, constitute investment capital (Perpetual Capital), unless the donor's declaration or the grant agreement clearly requires a different application of a donation. After the year end the donations paid into the Perpetual Capital are transferred to the statutory fund until the level of EUR 120 million is achieved.

Provisions

Provisions are recognized when the Foundation has a present obligation (legal or generally accepted) resulting from past events and when it is certain or highly probable that fulfilment of this obligation would require the outflow of the resources and when a reliable estimate can be made with regard to the amount of the obligation.

Accruals

Accruals include probable liabilities pertaining to the current reporting period, arising in particular from:

- goods and services provided by suppliers, but not invoiced as at the balance sheet date, if the amount payable can be estimated in a reliable manner;
- the obligation to provide in the future services relating to current activities, the amount of which can be estimated even though the origination date of a liability is not yet known.

Accruals are recognized at their nominal value.

Accruals having the character of provisions are presented in the balance sheet as provisions for liabilities.

Accruals not having the character of provisions resulting from goods and services provided to the Foundation but not yet invoiced by the suppliers are presented in the balance sheet as trade liabilities. The determination of the quantity or the amount of supply (service) may require estimation.

Auschwitz-Birkenau Foundation

Income

The income of the Foundation comprises cash and other financial assets received from sources specified in the Statutes.

Income derives from:

- domestic and foreign donations;
- income from the Foundation's assets;
- interest from investments, including bank deposits and securities (bonds).

The Foundation recognizes income from donations on a cash basis, on the date of their receipt in the bank account, except for donations for administrative purposes, which are recognized on the accrual basis, in the period in which donations are due.

Costs of statutory activities

Costs of statutory activities cover settlements of funds transferred to the Museum and recognized in the accounting books of the Foundation on the accrual basis, i.e. taking into account the level of usage of donations received by the Museum. Amounts transferred to the Museum, but not utilised (not spent) in the financial year, are shown as receivables of the Foundation under other receivables (item B.I.1.a of assets).

Interest

Interest income is recognized on the accrual basis (using the effective interest rate), unless collectability is in doubt.

Profit and loss account format

The Foundation prepares the profit and loss account in the comparative format (non-manufacturing format), whereby income and expenditure are classified according to type.

Cash flow statement

The Foundation prepares the cash flow statement using indirect method.

Translation of the financial statements for the financial year from 1 January to 31 December 2019 originally issued in the Polish language

Financial assets classified as available for sale were revalued as at 31 December 2019 at fair value calculated on the basis of market quotations of each instrument as of the balance sheet date including interest accrued based on the effective interest rates. Financial assets classified as held to maturity were revalued as at 31 December 2019 at adjusted purchase price.

* Profits or losses arising from revaluation of the entity's financial assets classified as available for sale are recorded in revaluation reserve, in accordance with art. 21 of Decree of Ministry of Finance dated 12 December 2001 on specific rules of recognition, measurement methods, scope of disclosure and method of presentation of financial instruments (Journal of Laws dated 22 December 2001). In accordance with art. 25, paragraph 1 of the Decree interest from these assets accrued based on the effective interest rates are recorded as financial income. Profits or losses recorded in the revaluation reserve in accordance with art. 25, paragraph 3 of the Decree, constitute the difference between the fair value of assets as of the revaluation date, and value of those assets at adjusted purchase price. Accrued interest related to assets classified as available for sale amounted to PLN 1,537,358.19.

 Presented fair value for all instruments in the investment portfolio, was calculated on the basis of market quotations that do not take into account accrued interest.

For assets classified as held to maturity, where fair value is lower than carrying amount, the entity estimates that it is not required to account for impairment losses. The change in fair value of these assets results from short-term fluctuations of market prices and the entity's intention is to hold them until maturity date.

 The carrying amount of assets classified as available for sale is presented including accrued interest (in Polish: "cena brudna").

7. Goals and principles of financial risk management

The entity invests all funds in debt securities of issuers with high ratings and bank deposits.

The Foundation follows an investment policy providing safety to the Perpetual Capital according to the rule 'security is more important than returns'. For diversification of risk, assets are held in EUR, USD and PLN that are also the currencies of major donations. The Foundation does not use change in currency rates as a premise for investment decisions.

When the rating of a particular issuer falls below a pre-determined level, the Foundation acts immediately in order to maintain the desired high security levels of invested funds.

The Foundation limits concentration risk with a particular issuer by setting maximum ratios of the total investment portfolio that may be invested in the securities of one single issuer.

Interest rate risk is limited by investing generally in debt instruments with fixed interest rates. The only appearing exceptions to the rule in Foundation's investment portfolio are perpetual bonds with variable interest rate starting from a specified date in the future and bonds issued by mBank based entirely on the variable interest rate.

14. Corporate income tax

The Foundation is exempted from corporate income tax pursuant of the Corporate Income Tax Act of 15 February 1992 (uniform text – Journal of Laws 2019 item 865).

Regulations regarding goods and services tax, corporate income tax, natural person's income tax or social security contributions are subject to changes, as a result of which there is often no reference to fixed regulations or legal precedents. The existing legislation contains ambiguities that cause differences in opinions as to the legal interpretation of tax regulations both between state authorities and between state authorities and enterprises. Taxes and other settlements (for example customs or foreign exchange) may be subject to control by authorities that are entitled to impose significant penalties, and the additional amounts of liabilities established as a result of the inspections must be paid with interest. These phenomena cause that the tax risk in Poland is higher than that usually found in countries with a more developed tax system.

Tax settlements may be reviewed for a period of five years. As a result, the amounts reported in the financial statements may change at a later date after the final determination of their amount by tax authorities.
